The DFO, or the Alternate DFO, will call all of the Group and its subcommittee meetings; prepare and approve all meeting agendas; and adjourn any meeting when the DFO, or the Alternate DFO, determines adjournment to be in the public interest or required by governing regulations or DoD policies and procedures.

9. Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings: The Group shall meet at the call of the Group's DFO, in consultation with the Chair. The estimated number of Group meetings is two per year.

The appointment of Group members will be authorized by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense and administratively certified by the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, for a term of service of one-to-four years, subject to annual renewals, in accordance with DoD policies and procedures. Members of the Group who are not full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees will be appointed as experts or consultants pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 3109 to serve as special government employee (SGE) members. Group members who are full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees will serve as regular government employee (RGE) members. No member, unless authorized by the Secretary of Defense or Deputy Secretary of Defense, may serve more than two consecutive terms of service on the Group, to include its subcommittees, or serve on more than two DoD federal advisory committees at one time.

The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has the delegated authority to appoint the Group's Chair from among the membership previously authorized by the Secretary of Defense or Deputy Secretary of Defense.

support the Group. Establishment of subcommittees will be based upon a written determination to include terms of reference, by the Secretary of Defense, the Deputy Secretary of Defense, or the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as the Group's Sponsor.

Such subcommittees shall not work independently of the Group and shall report all their recommendations and advice solely to the Group for full deliberation and discussion. Subcommittees, task forces, or working groups have no authority to make decisions and recommendations, verbally or in writing, on behalf of the Group. No subcommittee or any of its members can update or report, verbally or in writing, directly to the DoD or any Federal officers or employees. If a majority of Group members are appointed to a particular subcommittee, then that subcommittee may be required to operate pursuant to the same notice and openness requirements of FACA which govern the Group's operations.

Pursuant to Secretary of Defense policy, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is authorized to administratively certify the appointment of subcommittee members if the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense has previously authorized the individual's appointment to the Group or another DoD advisory committee. If the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense has not previously authorized the appointment of the individual to the Group or another DoD advisory committee, then the individual's subcommittee appointment must first be authorized by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense and subsequently administratively certified by the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Subcommittee members, with the approval of the Secretary of Defense, will be appointed for a term of service of one-to-four years, subject to annual renewals; however, no member shall serve more than two consecutive terms of service on the subcommittee, without prior authorization by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense.

Subcommittee members, if not full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees, will be appointed as experts or consultants pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 3109 to serve as SGE members. Subcommittee members who are full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees will serve as RGE members. With the exception of reimbursement for travel and per diem as it pertains to official travel related to the Group or its subcommittees, Group subcommittee members shall serve without compensation.

The Secretary of Defense authorizes the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to appoint the leadership of any appropriately approved subcommittees from among the subcommittee membership previously authorized by the Secretary of Defense or Deputy Secretary of Defense.

The Group has one permanent subcommittee, the Stockpile Assessment Team ("the Team"). Total membership of the Team will not exceed 15 members who are eminent authorities in the fields of strategic policy formulation; nuclear weapon design; national command, control, communications, intelligence, and information operations; or other important aspects of the Nation's strategic forces.
